2nd AMENDED STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL AFFAIRS

This statement is to be completed by every debtor. Spouses filing a joint petition may file a single statement on which the information for both spouses is combined. If the case is filed under chapter 12 or chapter 13, a married debtor must furnish information for both spouses whether or not a joint petition is filed, unless the spouses are separated and a joint petition is not filed. An individual debtor engaged in business as a sole proprietor, partner, family farmer, or self-employed professional, should provide the information requested on this statement concerning all such activities as well as the individual's personal affairs. To indicate payments, transfers and the like to minor children, state the child's initials and the name and address of the child's parent or guardian, such as "A B., a minor child, by John Doe, guardian." Do not disclose the child's name. See, 11 U.S.C. §112 and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(m).

Questions 1 - 18 are to be completed by all debtors. Debtors that are or have been in business, as defined below, also must complete Questions 19 - 25. Debtor was told that the $20,000 proceeds were used by Ms. Moore to settle lawsuit. The only lawsuit known to Debtor was Lavoy v. Estate of Aaron Grossman. Grossman, Adam Ch. 7 Bankruptcy
Attachment To Question No. 8

Case No. 10-19817-MLB

Date of Loss: 12/14/2010

Description of Circumstances:

During divorce proceedings in 2010, Debtor's ex-wife submitted claims in King County Superior Court that $255,000 disbursed from the Terrington Davies Tanager Fund Limited Partnership by the general partner on May 20, 2010, was community property money while the Debtor who was the Director of Trading for the then-general partner testified that the funds belonged to other investors. An order of the Washington State Superior Court made a finding of fact that a distribution of funds out of the Limited Partnership belonging to other people totaling $255,000 was community property belonging to the Debtor and the Debtor's wife.

Loss #1: Ex-wife was credited $255,000 of community assets to balance incorrectly alleged distribution of non-existent community assets from limited partnership that were the property of other investors prior to the finding of the Superior Court. Loss: $125,000 of actual community property that would have otherwise been divided.

Loss #2: Debtor was credited with $255,000 of incorrectly classified non-existent community assets that were the property of other investors prior to the finding of the Superior Court. Loss: $255,000.

Loss #3: As Debtor is probably the only person among any of the associated parties (other than costly accountants) who has the knowledge to prepare P/L statements of many thousands of cash-settled index option trades, Debtor made an offer, which was accepted, to prepare one single report of the preliminary financial statements for the Terrington Davies Tanager Fund LP, gratis. Debtors pre-preparation represents approximately 80% of the total work required that has traditionally then been completed by Peterson and Sullivan LLP to finalize the financial statements but the new general partner may use other accountants. Financial statements are a necessary prerequisite to preparing K-1 tax forms for limited partners and this has typically been done in the summer.

Value of Loss:

$125,000 (Loss #1)
$255,000 (Loss #2)
$100,000 (Loss #3)¹
$100,000 (Loss #4)²

$580,000 Total³

To reflect the ruling of the Superior Court that the funds distributed in May, 2010, from the Limited Partnership belonged to the community and not the other investors, entries to the general ledger must account for the change of "fact" and the Debtor has participated in limited discussions with Peterson and Sullivan. However, the adjusting account entries necessary to be consistent with the ruling of the Superior Court will ultimately be the judgment of the new general partner likely in consultation with accountants and lawyers of their choice. While the decision of the new general partner is speculative, the accountants at Peterson and Sullivan suggest the most accurate – and possibly only – corrective entry to account for the distribution of community property in the amount of $255,000 when no (material) amount of community or separate property existed in the partnership at the time of the distribution is: credit cash account $255,000, debit accounts receivable from Jill Borodin and Adam Grossman community property. Likewise, the corrective entries for funds deposited from Peter Zieve and Lyman Opie which can be inferred that the Superior Court found were not used to fund the May 20, 2010, purchase are: debit cash $120,000, credit accounts payable Peter Zieve $120,000; and debit cash $135,000, and credit accounts payable Lyman Opie $135,000. Thus, before closing the Fund, the remaining non-zero capital accounts may be,

Account	Amount
Debtor/ex-wife Community A/R	$255,000
Peter Zieve A/P	-$120,000
Lyman Opie A/P	-$135,000

and these three balance sheet accounts would need to be zeroed out whether by agreement or through litigation prior to closing the business. Loss: $100,000 (guess).¹

#4: Cost of Litigation. Highly variable. Loss: $100,000 (guess).²

Unknown Outcome.

¹ Placing a valuation on the loss to the Debtor cannot be done accurately depending on how the community A/R is treated and ruled upon based on the Divorce Decree. If Debtor's Chapter 7 proceedings are completed, there will likely be no effect on debtor. If Debtor's motion to convert to Chapter 13 under a 100% Repayment Plan is granted the losses could vary from $0 to $255,000 depending on the interpretation of community A/R created by the Superior Court ruling.

² The cost either to correct the error made by the Superior Court or to enforce the collection of an account receivable that is created by the Superior Court's error will not be insignificant. Since attorney's fees are awarded – nearly universally and in full – to the prevailing party, this range of cost could vary widely.

³ Variation as noted.

² Debtor engaged in brief discussions with Keywest Financial LLC and other discussions with third parties about the price to convert the future payments into a present lump sum. Such discussions ceased when Debtor's control was transferred to the trustee but Debtor is highly confident that a third party can be found to pay a lump sum for the future payments.

¹ This trust may seem complicated but it is not. I worked with many attorneys to develop a number of variations of entity systems to meet investor preferences for a medium sized real estate fund that I was actively promoting before being served with divorce papers and advised that I should cease activity developing a new business during divorce proceedings. One attribute favored by investors is the ability to hold property somewhat privately. Of the many ways to accomplish this is to write trust texts that name the successor trustee to be the Advisor to the Fund and the successor beneficiary to be the Fund and require as a closing condition during escrow that the initial trustee resigns and initial beneficiary disowns all interest thereby automatically creating a trust with the Advisor as trustee and the Fund as beneficiary

The Montcrest Trust had an additional complication because the policy of the title company was to double-deed and not vest directly into a trust. This is in violation of the contract, the standard CAR-RPA contract, which states in 12(D) that title vests as designated by the buyer. I designated directly into the trust. However, they would not do that and needed an intermediary name. I said it didn't matter and suggested the escrow officer use her name but she declined. I answered something vague – probably to use anyone, you could use me even – because it didn't matter since it was all done while in escrow and before it was released. I believe they looked up my name in the county records where they found and used "Adam Grossman, an unmarried man" from the Strauss Lane title even though I was then married
